KING STRIKE HELPS OUT

BONANZA MAGNATE ORDERS BRIDLE TAKEN OFF.

The great strike which was recently reported on the 1,400 level of the Silver King bonanza may have an important bearing on the politics of Salt Lake county. The analogy between the strike and the political situation will shortly be made clear.

When Dennis Elchorn was compelled by the Republican bosses to continue his tenure of the county chairmanship he said that he was asked to make a close estimate on what it would cost to carry this county. He figured and figured. Counting everything at the closest of margins he estimated that he could win for $11,500.

On this basis he was told to go ahead. Since the strike, though, things have changed, somewhat. Thomas Kearns is understood to have told Mr. Elchorn to take a "ride off." Kearns is a good deal richer as a result of the discoveries on that 1,400 level, and when he says to take the bridle off, the rest of the harness goes along with it.

The new estimate of actual expenses is $14,200, but Mr. Elchorn will have something like $4,000 more for incidentals. It is easy to see where the coin is going and it is easy to see where the Republican style of fighting. The following figures give a comprehensive idea of it.

Classes of voters.....$1,000
Registration pays, city.....$300
Pledge district expenses.....$200
City outside the city.....$200
Total.....$1,700

The estimate given above is of course general. It may be itemized, however. That the canvass will cost $1,000 is apparent from the fact that it is a paying men and women to do this work at the rate of about $3 per day each. Three to a district are about the average and each district will do a thing like two days. This makes the exact cost of the canvass $936, and extra will easily bring it up to $1,000.

Heavy Registration Expense.

For registration days, Mr. Elchorn's campaign bill will be at least $1,000 for each day. Three workers in each district will get $5 apiece per day. There are fifty-two districts in the county, aggregate cost for workers for the five days is $3,900. Add to this the $5,000 for carriages and the total registration expense is $8,900.

For election day there will be six workers in each district at $5 per day and another $1,000 carriage bill, or $2,550 in all. The estimate of $1,800 for the county outside the city is believed to be very moderate. It will be used in pretty much the same ways as in the city except that the carriage hire will be practically nothing.

The main thing that is puzzling Chairman Elchorn is where to get six workers for each district on election day. He is thinking of applying to the employment agencies for assistance. Those who wish places will do well to apply to Mr. Elchorn at the earliest possible moment.

BOOSTER IN POSTOFFICE.

Wilson of Sandy Meets Significant Omen.

Postmaster W. W. Wilson of Sandy, Utah, who quite naturally there is no more ardent supporter of the McKinley administration and all that it stands for, has not been sleeping well during the last few nights. A sign has been revealed to Mr. Wilson which he considers rather ominous. He fears it shows the triumph of Democracy and good authorities on signs and omens have assured him that his uneasiness is well founded.

When Mr. Wilson went to open up the postoffice on Friday morning he heard a "cock-a-doodle-do," as he called it, and he knew that it was a bird. He could hardly believe his ears, so he promptly made a search for the offending chattering bird. In a moment he saw, perched on a wire close to the delivery window and behind the railing, a large white rooster in a defiant attitude.

The rooster eyed Mr. Wilson and, before he could get to the window, he saw the bird. "Shoo," said the official, timidly, "cock-a-doodle-do," replied the bird, without "shooting" worth a canceled stamp.

Mr. Wilson thought of all the charms he had known in his boyhood days. It occurred to him that he might throw a few words of good omen at the bird, but he had no salt handy, and he feared that if he went to get some the fowl might take advantage of his absence and eat a big black full of Republican literature received that morning from Chairman Callister.

The rooster didn't want to leave the office at all. Wilson tried half an hour before he succeeded in getting it out, and now he's walking around with a big black full of Republican literature like a motherless cock because he feels that the next postmaster general will be appointed by a man who will be under a counterpane of the bird that invaded his office.

POLITICS AT THEATRE.

How a Campaign Song Took With the Crowd.

One of those little incidents which occur so frequently in political campaigns and which go to show the temper of a people took place at the theatre on Friday night. The audience was large one. It was non-partisan in character, for neither Democrats nor Republicans were going to be anything of a political nature on the boards.

At one stage of the performance a specialty man came out to sing a popular song. It started with a reference to McKinley and the audience thought was complimentary. Instantly there were hisses. The actor looked slightly startled, but continued his stum. Soon it developed that he was singing a satire on McKinley and Hanna, and then the house rang with applause.

It was clear that the majority of the audience sympathized with the Democratic campaign, a fact that should give encouragement to the local managers.

WOMEN DEMOCRATS MEET.

Executive Committee Plans Some Entertainments.

The executive committee of the Woman's Democratic club and the committee appointed from the five city precincts some days ago held an enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon at the Democratic county headquarters. Plans for interesting the sex were talked over at some length.

It was decided to give at least three large card parties and one big entertainment of a general character. The latter will be under the direction of the ladies at Christensen's hall at that county. "There was a little difficulty in the convention," he said yesterday, "but it will all be smoothed out. The men are good fellows and good Democrats and they will all support this fall."

Democrats generally are cordially in-

be charged and the proceeds will be devoted to campaign work.

The event at Christensen's is to be planned on a large scale. It is proposed to have booths of various kinds where refreshments will be sold by a real spy queen and where refreshments will be distributed to the throng. At the conclusion of the programme dancing will be indulged in.

FLOOD MONEY RECEIVED.

Judge Powers Thanked For Democratic Galveston Donation.

The only political gathering in Utah that did anything for the Galveston flood sufferers was the Democratic county convention. It will be remembered that that body collected $115.15 for the victims of the disaster.

Warded by Judge O. W. Powers as chairman of the convention, and he yesterday received the following letter from Treasurer Sealey of the Galveston relief committee:

"O. W. Powers, Chairman Democratic County Convention, Salt Lake City:

"Sir—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your valued favor of the 17th inst., enclosing $115.15, representing the amount collected for our relief fund at the Democratic county convention for Salt Lake county, held at Salt Lake City, Sept. 13-14. Please accept our hearty thanks for this generous assistance, which I assure you is much appreciated by our distressed citizens, and I assure you is highly appreciated.

"Yours very truly,

"JOHN SEALEY,

"Chairman Finance Committee."

BERRY AS ORGANIZER.

Old Soldier Will Help Form Democratic Club.

President H. P. Henderson of the Democratic State society of Utah yesterday at the residence of Mr. B. Berry, a well-known Salt Lake City resident, authorized him to form Democratic clubs in the National Association of Democratic Clubs.

With these credentials in his possession Captain Berry, the state organizer, whose postoffice address is box 131, Salt Lake City, is now on his way to all Democratic district chairmen. "I am at your command and will furnish you with the necessary organizing clubs. Get you in touch with national headquarters."

WORKINGMEN COMBINE.

Effect Coalition With Good Board of Officers.

One hundred and fifty-seven workingmen met at 238 South Street last night and effected a consolidation which will be the great benefit of the Democratic party. The Silver Workingmen's club, the Bryan and Stevenson club and the Workingmen's Democratic club consolidated under the name of the Workingmen's Democratic club of Salt Lake county.

The meeting came to order at the call of John Green, former president of the Silver Workingmen's club. Mr. Green stated the objects of the gathering, after which, on motion of John Green, legislative nominee, the constitution of the national association of Democratic clubs was adopted as a basis of organization.

The organization was organized with the following officers:

President—Nicol Hood of Sugar.

Vice President—Representative J. G. Brundage of Ballpark.

Secretary—C. M. Jackson of Salt Lake.

Treasurer—Frank Collett of Salt Lake.

An executive committee was then selected as appended:

President—Samuel Dowse, Charles Gunderman.

Second—J. W. Sanborn, C. W. Rankin.

Third—John Green, R. S. Slaughter.

Fourth—Joseph Eldredge, James Sabine.

Fifth—F. D. Rush, D. L. Levey.

Sixth—Pleasant Grant—Isaac Coon.

Seventh—Henry Bowden.

Eighth—W. C. A. Smeat.

Ninth—D. F. Cunningham.

Tenth—D. O. Riddett, Jr.

The executive committee then organized and elected D. L. Levey chairman, after which the meeting adjourned.

Political Notes.

Chairman Dennis Elchorn of the Republican county committee was tonight fully insulted yesterday, to hear him tell the tale. He was sitting quietly in the chair, meditating some schemes to encompass the defeat of Democracy in Salt Lake county, when a stranger walked briskly in. "You are Mr. Callister," he said, icily, "before the fellow could get any further Dennis congealed him with an awful stare. "You'll find Mr. Callister at state headquarters," he said, and the stranger backed out with the air of a man who wishes to conceal his father's name.

They didn't do much at Republican state headquarters yesterday afternoon when the Republican committee met at Glenwood Tuesday at Redmond Wednesday and in Wayne county the balance of the week.

A well attended meeting of the Democratic county committee was held at headquarters yesterday afternoon. Those present manifested an interest in the work of the committee and all expressed the determination to work unflinchingly at work until the polls are thrown.

The fact that Judge Powers has been called to New York on account of the death of his aged father will result in the cancellation of his speaking engagements here, however, in time to participate in the closing days of the campaign.

A meeting of the Democratic Social club of the Thirty-first district will be held at the residence of Mrs. E. J. D. Brundage, 422 West First North Street Monday evening, Oct. 1, at 8 o'clock. A very interesting programme, consisting of recitations, speeches and light refreshments will be served by the lady members of the club. All members of the club and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

P. H. Holzheimer, Democratic nominee for the legislature in Juab county, doesn't take a serious view of the opposition to himself by Democrats of that county. "There was a little difficulty in the convention," he said yesterday, "but it will all be smoothed out. The men are good fellows and good Democrats and they will all support this fall."

Democrats generally are cordially invited to attend a Democratic social which will be held on Friday next at the residence of Mrs. H. Hayward, Pugsley's court on Fourth North street between Third and Fourth West. A good entertainment will be provided, consisting of music, refreshments and some of the best speakers obtainable.

Henry Peery, the broker, has made another change in his offer to bet on Utah. On the day of Roosevelt's visit to this city Mr. Peery put out the offer to bet $5,000 to $4,000 or any part of it that Bryan would carry Utah. This offer was not taken, and some days later he changed the odds to $5,000 to $3,500. None of this was taken and yesterday the offer was made to read $5,000 to $3,000 that Bryan will carry Utah.

The large tent intended for Democratic rallies was put in place yesterday on the vacant lot at the corner of West Temple and Third South streets. The ground is being leveled and the seats put into place and in a day or two all will be ready for business.

Mrs. George Wood, 232 East Fourth South, will entertain the Woman's Democratic club on Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 2:30 p. m. An interesting programme has been arranged and all Democratic women are invited to attend.

The Social Democrats will hold a rally and ratification meeting at their headquarters, 68 South Main street, tomorrow evening. Charles Stewart, A. B. Edlitz and others will address the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic precinct committee of the Fourth precinct at the home of T. F. Thomas, 218 F street, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The Democrats of Sugar precinct held a convention on Friday evening at the home of Thomas Alston for the purpose of nominating candidates for justice of the peace and constable. Joseph W. Musgrave, Forester, was nominated for justice and C. C. Smeat of Sugar for constable. The convention was well attended and the proceedings were harmonious.

ISAAC SMITH'S STATEMENT.

Logan Man Discusses His Hearing by Church Authorities.

Logan, Sept. 29.—Isaac Smith denies the accuracy of some of the statements made in yesterday's Herald relative to his hearing before Apostles Cowley and Lund. He asserts that his wife was not adjudged guilty of defaming Emma Jensen, the girl who is mixed up in the affair. "Mrs. Smith admitted calling the girl a vile epithet," said he, "but in the interest of peace and good feeling agreed to withdraw it, although we could have proven that she was such a person. Mrs. Smith did not charge with incest. The charge was made by me. My wife was not found guilty of anything, and any statement to the contrary is false. The epithet she applied to the girl was uttered by the pastor of the church, brought on by the repetition of vile and unsubstantiated charges made against us by the girl."

The Social Democrats will hold a rally and ratification meeting at their headquarters, 68 South Main street, tomorrow evening. Charles Stewart, A. B. Edlitz and others will address the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic precinct committee of the Fourth precinct at the home of T. F. Thomas, 218 F street, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.
